

Public Policy Priorities

Allstate is proud to actively participate in the public policy process in Washington, DC and each state capital.

As active corporate citizens, we advocate for ways to foster a healthy and robust insurance marketplace and promote solutions to benefit our customers and the communities we serve.

In New Jersey, our top public policy priorities are:

- Reforming the personal injury protection system
- Preventing insurance fraud and abuse
- Preventing legislation that adds costs for consumers

Allstate: Bringing out the Good

The Allstate Foundation focuses its work in four areas:

Domestic Violence Program

We help empower domestic violence survivors to overcome abuse and to lead financially independent lives.

Youth Empowerment

We inspire youth across the country to give back to their local communities.

Disaster Preparedness

We help prepare communities for disaster by offering education, emergency plans and disaster preparedness kits.

Teen Safe Driving Program

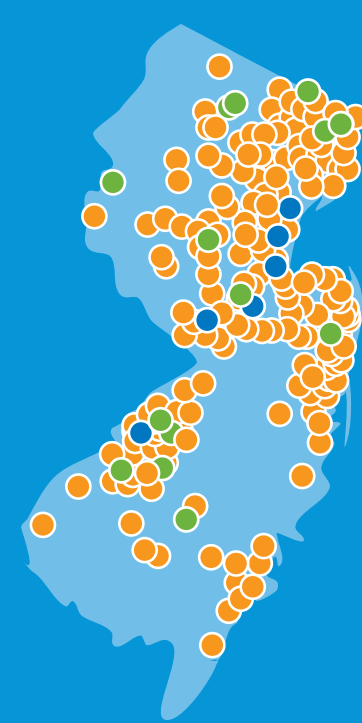

We provide programs to educate new drivers and their parents about smart driving habits to help make the roads safer for all.

"750 Burlington County families are better prepared for disasters thanks to The Allstate Foundation, who provided free disaster kits to the community."
